

Kohler entrepreneur to be featured on “Project Pitch It” TV show

Project Pitch It, a television show presented by the University of Wisconsin-Milwaukee’s Lubar Entrepreneurship Center, features 24 Wisconsin entrepreneurs pitching their ideas or businesses to a panel of local leaders and leading business moguls who question, advise, and challenge the participants to take their ventures to the next level. In each episode, three entrepreneurs demonstrate their game-changing innovations and vie for weekly awards valued at more than $40,000. There are eight episodes of the show, with each one featuring three Wisconsin entrepreneurs.

Kohler resident and entrepreneur Stephanie Hoskins will be appearing on Episode 8 of Project Pitch It. Stephanie is co-founder and CEO of the company Debtle, which she started with her husband Houston. , a cloud-based debt settlement platform that helps small and mid-size healthcare organizations quickly resolve unpaid invoices. Debtle brings organizations and individuals together online to negotiate and resolve financial obligations in a quick, transparent, and frictionless manner, without needing to involve third-party collection agencies.

Stephanie and her husband Houston conceived of the idea behind Debtle while living in New Orleans. Stephanie was working in health care administration at the time and witnessed the impact of bad debt on both providers and patients, which inspired her to come up with the idea for Debtle.

The couple and their two children made what was supposed to be a temporary, two-week move to Kohler to stay with Stephanie’s parents while they quarantined during the Covid-19 pandemic. But they decided to permanently relocate to the area after discovering that Wisconsin is not only a great place to live, but to start a new business.

The Hoskins and Debtle are off to a good start, winning two tech pitch competitions in Wisconsin, and made Wisconsin Inno’s 2021 list of startups to watch.

Episode 8 of Project Pitch It featuring Hoskins will be broadcast on WISN Channel 12 on Saturday, May 14 at 10:35 p.m., and replayed on Sunday, June 12 at 11:30 a.m. The Project Pitch It TV show can also be viewed on WBAY Channel 2 Green Bay beginning on April 2.

Kari Altman, Director of Community Outreach for Project Pitch It, said the program, which is in its sixth season, has made a huge impact on Wisconsin’s economy and businesses, including creating 300-plus jobs.
